Real Party in Interest (RPII) appears specially and not generally and NOTICES THE COURT that the plaintiff, represented by GREGORY A. BROWER and Daniel D. Hollingsworth, did in fact misrepresent the following material facts on or about July 17, 2009.

GREGORY A. BROWER and Daniel D. Hollingsworth represented that the liability to named defendants is $1,290,000. This is a false representation and it appears that plaintiff

090923 -- [Notice of Misrepresentation of Material Facts by AUSA 090923], Page 1 of 4

1 representatives are attempting to defraud both the court and named defendants. In open court, in 2 July 2009, at the Faretta hearing, Eric Johnson, AUSA for plaintiff, admitted (notwithstanding 3 the Miller Act Penal sums and the $100 administrative charge per court alleged) that the amount
4 of outstanding alleged liability due by the named defendants to plaintiff (FBI) was $100,000.00
5 (One Hundred Thousand dollars in current legal tender). A cursory review of the court record (or 6 bank accounting records) would demonstrate said inaccuracies.

7 It has also come to my attention that while I was in California, the first week of 8 September 2009, a towing company was reconnoitering my household to take the ministry's SUV
9 (1999 Dodge Durango) away as a result of orders from plaintiff. To my knowledge there has not 10 been a judgment or seizure order given against any property owned or controlled by the ministry,
11 SIMPE Corp., see attached Affidavit of Arthur O'Brien. Without a valid court order this action 12 by plaintiff demonstrates bad faith and unclean hands.

13 Furthermore, based upon the counterclaim, it appears that the funds allegedly owed 14 plaintiff are actually property due Counter-plaintiff/Claimant a priori to any relations with 15 plaintiff in the case no. 2:09-CR-078. And, if memory serves, Counter-plaintiff/Claimant made 16 this fact clear to agent(s) of plaintiff at the first meeting at the MGM Grand Hotel. It also appears 17 to Counter-plaintiff/Claimant that plaintiff representatives are using case no. 2:09-CR-078 to 18 evade collections by Counter-plaintiff/Claimant for prior debts due Counter-plaintiff/Claimant
19 since (at least) April 2001 on bond numbers F3779317, F55451905 among at least eight others, 20 which (through information and belief) was admitted by two Secret Service agents (Leighton 21 Greenlee and Clayton Slay) in the afternoon of September 28, 2009, in Montgomery, Alabama.

1 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 29 September, 2009.
